

WILLIAM A. SERRAO
PARTNER, IBM, NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Bill is an IBM executive responsible for the Americas Media & Entertainment practice for IBM Global Business Services. He was a partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers which was acquired by IBM in 2002. During his 20 Management Consulting career, he has served many fortune 50 clients such as AT&T, Disney, Thomson, and Time Warner by helping them use Information Technology to improve their business processes in the areas of financial, customer, and supply chain management. Bill began his civilian career as a systems development manager at Prodigy, one of the earliest on-line services companies. He is a distinguished cadet graduate (summa cum laude) of the United States Military Academy at West Point, NY and he achieved the rank of Captain in the US Army Signal Corps where he was a company commander in a combat division, receiving the Meritorious Service Medal. He is one of the original founders of the Council for Unity as a student at John Dewey High School. Bill lives in Staten Island, NY with his wife Gloria and they have three children attending graduate, undergraduate, and high school.